The Brookfield Hotel is a family owned country house hotel, set in its own landscaped gardens, near the coastal village of Emsworth with extensive complimentary car-parking. Established in 1972, the hotel has long had an enviable reputation for high quality personal service and cuisine.

Situated between Portsmouth and Chichester, in a location famed for its natural beauty and fascinating history, The Brookfield Hotel makes an ideal base from which to explore the area during your short break.

Emsworth, with its range of village shops, is only a short walk away where you can relax with a quiet drink in one of our traditional inns or just savour the village atmosphere with its historic buildings and views over the millpond. For the more energetic there are walks along the waterside, and the shores of Chichester Harbour are only a five-minute country walk from the hotel.

Emsworth, between the sea and the South Downs, is close to many wonderful places to visit, including the maritime heritage of Portsmouth and the cathedral Englishness of Chichester; the historic houses of Uppark and Stansted; the horse racing of Goodwood and Fontwell; the culture of Chichester Festival Theatre and the Pallant House Gallery. Varying shopping opportunities are available with Chichester's boutiques and galleries or Gunwharf Quays with its modern waterside location, national stores, wine bars, restaurants and the Emirates Spinnaker Tower.

Many other opportunities to enjoy yourself are available here, but do please visit us to find them all. So many you will have to come back again ... and again!

Leave the car behind and take a bus! No. 700 Coastliner Service passes the front of the hotel regularly, running between Brighton, Chichester and Portsmouth. Trains to London, Portsmouth and Chichester from Havant are only a short taxi ride away.
